

Gr 3/4 Excursion Melbourne Aquarium

Tuesday 9th May 2017

Beaconsfield
PRIMARY SCHOOL 1890

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Description: The Grade 3/4's have been looking at lifecycles of animals and the Great Barrier Reef. They are investigating how to identify the roles species have in food chains and the impact humans can have on these. On Tuesday the 14th and Wednesday the 15th of June, the students will be visiting the Melbourne Aquarium where they will explore a wide variety of Australian and Antarctic habitats and investigate the lives of the species who live there. Students will also observe animals in different stages of their life cycles and learn about the diverse ways marine creatures have young.

When: Grade 3's on Wednesday 14th June
Grade 4's on Thursday 15th June

Where: Melbourne Aquarium

Transport: Bus

Cost: $23.00

Time: We will be leaving school at 9:00am and returning by approximately 3:00pm. As per our Excursion Policy we will wait no longer than five minutes after the stated departure time. Students who arrive later than this will stay at school.

Special requirements: Students are to bring their snack, lunch and a drink bottle in a named plastic bag. Students must wear their school uniform together with comfortable walking shoes. Spending money is not required at this excursion.

Due date for notice and money: Wednesday 31st May 2017

Regards,
3/4 Team
